

Agent Program

Looking to take control of your financial future?

Title Logistics' agent program addresses the unique business needs of an industry-savvy entrepreneur. Our program is designed to:

- help you build a profitable business
- allow you to provide a unique customized solution with value-added services to your customers
- enable you with state-of-the-art software systems
- free you from back office administration, banking, finance, accounting and tax related responsibilities.

Become an authorized agent and you will garner access to our marketing and sales tools, business intelligence tools, financial incentives and state-of-the-art brokerage and transportation management system. Take advantage of our transportation expertise to build and manage your own business with no start-up investment. Your revenue growth will be compensated with commissions on all loads you book as an authorized agent.

Why consider Title Logistics?

Finally, the opportunity to get paid what you're worth!

- Set your own hours
- Earn unlimited income
- Be your own boss
- Dictate your quality of life
- If you have relationships with customers who need freight brokered, it's a simple transition to control your destiny.

Services to Sell:

Truckload Brokerage Services

Van, Reefer, Flat, Over Dimensional, Dump, Hopper, Tanker, Hot Shot... We have the carrier base and relationships to handle all of your customers' requirements.

Less Than Truckload (LTL) Services

Title Logistics has direct contracts and tariff pricing with both national and regional LTL carriers. This pricing is available to you and your customers.

Mexico and Canada

Title Logistics has relationships with both Mexican and Canadian carriers for your cross-border needs.

Logistics Management Services

Title Logistics has the resources and experienced team to help you close the deal. Does your customer want to outsource their logistics and transportation? Do they need domestic transportation management services? Do they need sight selection services, freight optimization or help creating regional distribution network? Are they looking for a customized solution? Our management team has over 150 years of experience in logistics and would be delighted to showcase their talent to assist a customer.

Warehousing

Title Logistics has access to a nationwide network of warehouses and can assist your customers by offering them not only transportation but warehousing and distribution solutions within the continental United States.

Industry Experience and Expertise

Our team has decades of transportation, supply chain, and leadership experience. Title Logistics has memberships in leading industry trade groups, including the Transportation Intermediaries Association (TIA).

Title Logistics Offers You:

Lead Generation, Sales Material, and Promotional Items

Title Logistics will help you create a personalized sales and marketing plan, complete with pre-screened leads, flyers, Web tools, and promotional items.

Sales Assistance

Title Logistics has a team of salespeople ready and willing to help you. Just give us a call.

Financial Security

Title Logistics is built on a reputation for integrity and superior service. The company is a broker licensed by the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration is a Motor Carrier duly registered with the department of Transportation. Being conservatively managed with a long-term perspective, the company values each of its employees and agents and understands that its success is directly dependent upon its ability to empower and enable them with the right tools, direction and focus necessary to make them financially successful. Title Logistics specifically offers the following:

- A highly competitive commission program
- 30 day freight carrier settlements
- Extensive carrier vetting program for all carriers
- Credit checks on all customers
- Risk management and insurance
- Back office administration
- Accounts receivable and cash management
- In-house claims processing

The Latest Technology and Comprehensive Support

Our Independent Freight Agents & Freight Brokers access our computer system with freight carriers running all equipment types-readily available online in YOUR office.

- Unlimited Load/truck postings
- User friendly brokerage software
- Electronic carrier verification and approvals
- Full visibility over the brokerage process

Join our Team!

We're Looking for Experienced Independent Agents and Freight Brokers

If you are an independent freight agent or broker with an entrepreneurial spirit, and the ability to provide reliable transportation capacity as a business owner, we want to partner with you on an independent contractor commission basis to provide service to your existing customers.

Do You Have What it Takes?

- Integrity
- Commitment to quality customer service
- 5 or more years in the transportation industry

We're looking for the character and experience that will help us continue to grow. If you think you'd be a good match for Title Logistics, we want to speak with you.

Let's Talk.

Call (800) 674-8780 to schedule a confidential conversation.